Analytics

When you visit our website we use a third-party service, Google Analytics, to collect standard internet log information and details of visitor behaviour patterns. We do this to find out such things as the number of visitors to the various parts of the site. This information is only processed in a way that does not directly identify anyone. We do not make, and do not allow Google to make, any attempt to find out the identities of those visiting our website.

If we do collect personal data through our website, we'll be upfront about this. We'll make it clear when we collect personal information, and we'll explain what we intend to do with it.

Cookies

We use a cookies tool on our website to gain consent for the optional cookies we use. Cookies that are necessary for functionality, security and accessibility are set and are not deleted by the tool.

Security

We have put in place appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect your personal data and to prevent any unauthorised or unlawful processing and any accidental loss, destruction or damage to it.

Online forms

We use online forms on our website to collect information to enable us to process applications for the Scottish Government LIFT Shared Equity Scheme and our Mid Market Rental services.

Our forms are operated by a third-party service which is required to comply with the law and our own Data Processing Agreement to ensure data is managed appropriately, securely, and for specified purposes.

Why we need your personal information - Contractual purposes

We collect your information and may use it for the following purposes:

- To enable us to supply you with the services and information which you have requested or expect from us.
- To enable us to assess any online applications made for housing services that we offer.

Why we need your personal information – legitimate interests

We also process your personal information in pursuit of our legitimate interests. For example, in order to maintain the integrity of our IT systems and the continuity of our business.

How long we keep your personal information

We will determine the period that we need to keep your personal data having regard to the reasons and purposes for which it was collected, our statutory duties and other legal obligations, the exercise and defence of any legal claims, including the period within which any current or potential future legal claims may be brought.

Who we share you data with

We may be required to share personal information with statutory or regulatory authorities and organisations to comply with statutory obligations. We may also share personal information with our professional and legal advisors for the purposes of taking advice.

We will only share information on the basis of your consent or in accordance with another lawful basis under UK data protection legislation.

In the event that we do share personal information with external third parties, we will only share such personal information strictly required for the specific purposes and take reasonable steps to ensure that recipients shall only process the disclosed personal information in accordance with those purposes.

Your rights

Under data protection law, you have rights including:

- Your right of access - You have the right to ask us for copies of your personal information.
- Your right to rectification - You have the right to ask us to rectify personal information you think is inaccurate. You also have the right to ask us to complete information you think is incomplete.
- Your right to erasure - You have the right to ask us to erase your personal information in certain circumstances.
- Your right to restriction of processing - You have the right to ask us to restrict the processing of your personal information in certain circumstances.

- Your right to object to processing - You have the the right to object to the processing of your personal information in certain circumstances.
- Your right to data portability - You have the right to ask that we transfer the personal information you gave us to another organisation, or to you, in certain circumstances.

You are not required to pay any charge for exercising your rights. If you make a request, we have one month to respond to you.

Please contact us at informationrequests@albynhousing.org.uk if you wish to make a request.
